What You Learned

Answer the questions below to help you think about a business you could start.

1. Moziah Bridges started his business because he couldn't find any bowties that he liked. In other words, he recognized a "pain-point" or problem he had, and he started a business to solve it. List some pain-points or problems you have in your life in the space below:

2. Choose one of the "pain-points" you listed below that you think you could use to start a business to help solve the same problem for other people.

Pain Point I Chose: _____

3. In a few sentences, explain what your business would do and how it would solve the pain-point you chose.

Name: _____

4. What supplies do you think would need to start your business?

5. Would you need any other people to help you with your business? If so, who? What would they do?

6. What would you name your business?

7. If you could give some of the money from your business to a charity, like Mozoah does, which charity would you give it to? Why?

8. Make a sign for your business in the space below. Be sure to include the name and what it sells/offers, and make it look nice so it attracts people's attention.
